INTERNATIONAL METAPHYSICS ACADEMY BEGINS NEW PROGRAM IN VICTORIA

Unique academy offers cutting-edge metaphysical education and graduate training for teacher certification and students of all levels.

October 2009, Victoria BC – The International Metaphysical Academy, the North American branch of the Metaphysische Akademie in Laxenburg, Austria, announces the opening of registration for its one-year spiritual studies program, the first session starting Saturday, October 17, 2009 at the Pantry restaurant #202 - 3214 Douglas Street in Victoria from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The International Metaphysical Academy's curriculum features a year-long, 12 part program addressing a wide range of topics including the purpose of faith, basic knowledge about death and the transition process, consciousness expansion and its application in everyday life, aspects of the soul including soul constellations, families and polarity, secrets of life and the universe, spirit possessions, the difference between the spirit and the soul, the eight levels of consciousness, recognition and learning processes, acquiring enlightenment and soul advancement.

Started in Victoria in 1995 and headed by Anneli Driessen, PhD, PhD, MCC, the International Metaphysical Academy is a fast-growing, non-denominational and non-political metaphysical academy offering cutting-edge metaphysical education and universal knowledge. The Academy offers mentoring, counselling and coaching services for individuals, groups and children such as Indigos and Crystals. Its focus is on supporting, educating and facilitating the personal and spiritual advancement of all individuals who sincerely seek knowledge, inner contentment and meaning. It encourages individual thinking and accountability and teaches practical, hands-on techniques to apply acquired knowledge to real life issues.

Registration for the Academy program includes the full year curriculum, all study materials, year-end summary and retrospective, certificate of completion and celebration with unique meditation technique to let go of blocks and attachments. Classes will be held on Saturdays: October 17 and December 12, 2009; February 20, April 17, June 12 and August 28, 2010. Each session runs 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The Academy fee is $1,500.00 CAD, including GST, for the full year. Food and beverage are not included.

"We're excited to offer this program for students of all levels who are looking to advance their spiritual knowledge and who are serious about mastering this life to the best of their ability," says Dr. Driessen. "Our Academy is different from most spiritual programs. We offer unique, high-quality information that is not available anywhere else."
