Aspects of Universal Consciousness

By Anneli Driessen Ph.D., Ph.D., MCC– 31.01. 2021

Universal Consciousness exists and has been recognized by many people throughout the ages. However, to what extent any single individual has experienced universal Consciousness today varies.

As the phenomenon of a Universal Consciousness may be complicated, or even be impossible to put into words, here are a few points of reference:

- Identification with the whole of existence
- Oneness with the whole of existence
- Spiritual awareness through intuition as well as cognitive discernment
- A realization that the purpose of our physical earth plane's existence is existence for learning and the Soul's advancement
- A recognition that various religions and spiritual teachings exist to evoke spiritual awakening
- An awareness that life is universal and not confined to one physical, earth-plane incarnation, but rather that life is eternal and cannot cease to exist when the present human body dies
- Forgiveness and compassion for all souls, including those who violate the sacred oneness of life
- A recognition that Universal Consciousness or Mind existed in the Mind of Jesus as well as in Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Bahauallah, Meishusama, and many others who shared spiritual truths
- An awareness of other dimensions of existence and the progressive awakening of souls to higher levels of insight and knowledge
- An awareness that truth and lasting wealth is in Oneness with Universal Consciousness or God and that everything else is an illusion
- Expressions of universal Consciousness can be found in art, music, poetry, dance, science, parenting, education, leadership, and in all everyday activities
- An awakening for a universal consciousness occurs in stages
- Universal Consciousness is governed by love, humility, and faith in a supreme divine and just plan
